

PROVINCE III
2ND VP REPORT
April 2011

SVA Fall Assembly: I was privileged to represent Carolyn Booker at their Assembly meeting on October 23, 2010. Kathy Zinskie, President of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, graciously hosted me in her home.

Membership Report:

As of May 14, 2011 we have a total of 2,066 Daughters (Senior and Junior). This is a decrease from May of 2010 when we had 2,087. Everyone who had not paid dues since 2007 has been removed.

We have 139 Senior chapters and 14 Junior chapters. The list can be found on the National website: doknational.com (note change). On the home page go to the list on the left. Click on Evangelism, then click Map of Provinces, Province III, Province III chapter list.

Please check to see that the list of chapters in your diocese is up-to-date. This is where Daughters who are moving to a new area would check for chapters. We would not want them to miss a potential new chapter. There are some discrepancies between this list and the Province III membership list (not on the website), such as the chapter at Transfiguration in MD.

Province III has 13 dioceses. Four are still not assembled (have fewer than three chapters). Anne Canan, President of the Diocese of PA, has volunteered to go with another Daughter to the Province III ECW Annual Retreat on Sept. 31 to Oct. 1. They will take a display board and make a presentation. We are pleased that the ECW Retreat will take place this year in Rehobeth Beach, DE. Delaware is the one diocese that has no chapters.

Anne Svliko recently announced that there may be a Moravian chapter forming in the Diocese of Bethlehem.

The National website chapter list is still listing a Lutheran chapter in Akron, Pennsylvania.

New 2010 Study Guide (approved in Jan.): Available from the National Website under Resources and Forms. The page numbers correspond to the 2009 handbook. Most of the content is the same. There are additional questions for some studies and a prayer for the Alpha Fund in the last study. The new Study Guide does not contain the Application for Membership Form. It has to be downloaded from the website. The Guidelines for Study Guide Leaders has not changed.

Respectfully submitted,
